Red And Gold

W. J. Bethancourt III

13 May, 1989 CE

Golden as a Dragon's hoard:
Sunrise in my heart today.
Redder than the Rose's bloom:
Sunset stole my heart away.

Sunrise stole it back again,
Held between them, hand in hand,
Sunset red and sunrise gold
And I, as Day, between them stand.

Sunrise red and sunset gold...
So my Days go, hand in hand,
Wonderment within my eyes;
The Universe wherein we stand.

Sunrise, sunset, every day:
My Ladies stole my heart away.
